Mayor Bransford Has System Furnishing a Check on Ward Foremen.

BOOKS ARE STILL MISSING

TOMMY ATKINS APPEARS TO HAVE SOMETHING COMING.

T. St. Leger Atkins, the deposed chief clerk of the street department, appears to have $157 coming to him

Atkins was discharged because of his alleged manipulation of the poll tax books, and he was accused of appropriating to his own use $351 of the noney collected. He paid this money into the city treasury and thus escaped criminal prosecution

After his discharge and during the Raleigh investigation by the council, the poll tax books, with the exception of those of the Third ward, were stolen from the office of the department. Before the theft, however, the books had been carefully audited and found to be correct with the exception of the Atkins shortage. Now it has developed that the treasurer has received $157 more than the poll tax receipts call for, and this amount will probably be returned to Atkins, as when he settled with the city he paid that amount in excess of the sum he really was Mayor Has a Plan.

Mayor Bransford has devised cheme whereby all poll tax grafting in be stopped. The mayor, while asssor of Plumas county, California, had the duty of collecting a poll tax, and the system he used there will be installed in the local office.

During the past few years the foremen in the various wards have had the handling of poll tax collections, as well as the special collectors appointed. The opportunity to "graft" has been unlimited. For instance, a man who did not want to work two days to pay his 33 tax would go to the foreman, pay him $2 and have a clear receipt issued to him showing that he had worked two days. The foreman could pocket the money and the citizen would be $1 ahead on the deal. During the crossexamination of William Jones of the Third ward by Raleigh at the late council hearing, it was brought out that at least one receipt for labor was issued when the man never did the work, although Jones asserted that he had no money, and relied on the man's promise when he issued the receipt. It is impossible to check such transactions under the present system unless each man who paid his tax is looked

Check on Foremen.

Under the mayor's system, only one poll lax collector will be authorized to collect cash. Their receipts will be an project on white paper and plainly labeled "cash." When they take out a receipt book they will be charged with the entire number taken out, and must account for each one missing with $3 when they return.

be given labor receirts printed on blue 1636 John H. Anderson ose who have worked their two days, and these men must in turn come to 1652 the street department and secure another receipt there before they are 1676 Ernest Menlove credited with their work. At the end of each week all the books 1689 are to be checked up by the clerk and 1716 a detailed report made. The mayor thinks that under this system the chance for graft will be nearly eliminated, and he will put it 180 into operation at once.

The mystery surrounding the disapnegrance of the 1907 poll tax books has 1822 not been cleared. The investigation is in the hands of Sergeant Janney of the police department, and he is said to have a rather definite clue.
